ATTACKING WING-HALF

REMO GUARDIANI.

All of the defenders in the current Juventus team are adept at putting the ball back into attack, and recent displays by Remo Guardiani must stamp him as being possibly the finest left half in Victoria in this respect. Even in last Saturday's superb display by the entire team, Remo was a stand-out.

THREE VICTORIANS IN TOUR TEAM

First Game in Perth on July 14

The Eastern States team which will visit Western Australia, South Australia, Tasmania, and Victoria as the first step in the selection of an Olympic Games squad was announced this week.

Six Queenslanders, four New South Welshmen, and three Victorians were named to make the trip — the first time that New South Wales has not filled the majority of the berths.

World Cup at Middle Park Tomorrow

The two Laidlaw "World Cup" matches, originally scheduled for Toorak Park to-morrow, have been transferred to Middle Park.

The draw remains as previously announced, with the game IRELAND v. ENGLAND commencing at 1.30 p.m.; and ITALY v. ISRAEL, at 3 p.m.

BILL FLEMING ENJOYS HIS OLD PASTIME

. . . Sticking His Chin Out !

Undeh the heading of "This Is Just Crazy," Bill Fleming condenmned the Australian Soccer Association's tour plans in last Tuesday's ARGUS, and therey extended his double chin much too enticingly to let this opportunity of a journalistic pot-shot pass.

Before we proceed to give Bill the axe, let's review very briefly the original problems in connection with the Olympic Games as it affects soccer.

Firstly, there is the problem of selecting the best truly-representative team of lilywhite amateurs for Australia.

Secondly, there is the problem of raising about £3,000 for the cost of training, transporting, and providing for the team during the five weeks in which all of our Olympic soccer personnel will be a charge on the Australian Association.

These two problems go hand in-hand, and took months to solve.

BILL FLEMING REACHED A SOLUTION IN TWO MINUTES!

He says the whole matter "could have been so easily simplified by holding an all-States carnival in Melbourne."

Bill's rapid-fire solution fails to solve either problem. A carnival in Melbourne would not pay for itself, far less raise money for the Olympic period. On the other hand, the Association's plan for a "trial-horse" touring team is a far cheaper arrangement than bringing five teams to Melbourne, AND WILL BE PROFITABLE!

And as for team selection under Bill's plan, many of the visiting players who had not played representative football before would suffer from the usual jitters, allied to a hurried trip with a combined team in strange surroundings.

Bill infers that the second "trial-horse" team which will play in the Eastern States will be entirely different from the first side, and deplores the fact that only three Victorians were included in the first touring team.

Actually, the second side may include all, some, or none of the original team, and, after the match against Victoria in Melbourne on Sunday, July 22, the selectors may see fit to include more Victorians.

Bill states that this is all "fantastic" . . . "nonsense."

In the face of a comprehensive plan which has an excellent chance of producing both the required funds and a team worthy of representing Australia in the Olympic Games, we reluctantly regret that we can't bow to the "wisdom" of Bill's snap judgment.

JUVENTUS SUPREME !

Fifth Premiership Within Grasp

With the most delightful display of high-speed, precision football seen in Melbourne since last year's international visits, Juventus secured a stranglehold on its fifth consecutive premiership when it defeated Slavia 4-0 at the Showgrounds last Saturday.

There were times during the match when Slavia's players must have felt that there were 20 opponents on the field — the Italians were everywhere. Wherever the ball went, a black-and-white shirt was there to receive it or contest it.

From the opening whistle, Juventus had the upper hand with fast, accurate ground passing which left Slavia's defence groping. When in the second half the score began to indicate the result, the Italians became even more confident, and the difference in the class of the teams more evident.

Slavia found their opponents' defence virtually impassable, and the regularity with which Max Vivoli, John Picinich, and Remo Guardiani put the ball back into attack must have been extremely discouraging.

Plateo had a field day, scoring three goals and making possible the other, which was taken by Trentini early in the game.

Ray Barotajs, in goal for Slavia, prevented the score from going much higher, and Bob Zablocki, Vince Vacirca, Mario Busidoni, and Johnny Dickson fought on doggedly to the bitter end.

At this stage, no serious obstacles likely to keep Juventus from the premiership are evident in the remaining seven games.

REFEREES FOR OLYMPICS

The Australian Soccer Council has asked Victoria to name three referees to officiate in the soccer section of the Olympic Games.

The Referees' Association will be requested to submit a panel of names from which the Victorian Soccer Council will select three, which will be seconded to the Australian Council.

The matter of linesmen may require further consideration.

England Names 20 Players

For its World Cup match against Ireland at Middle Park to-morrow at 1.30 p.m., England has named a panel of 20 players from whom the side will be selected.

The following players are requested to be at the dressing rooms not later than 1 p.m.:

From Moreland—Hobson, Heath, Innard, Goodwin, Hodgson.

From Brighton — Thompson, Morton.

From Footscray City — Brien, Durkin, Whitehouse.

From Moorabbin — Carter.

From Box Hill — Stow.

From Hakoah — Sutherland, Harburn, Piercy, Jones.

From Sunshine City — Henderson, Sterling.

From Park Rangers — Peak, Logan, Stephenson.

FIRST SCORE TO TRENTINI

Plateo "made" the first goal for Juventus last week by feinting a shot, but passing to Trentini (right), who netted while Barotajs was still off balance. Part of the crowd of 8000 can be seen in the background.

Soccer Club Expelled

The Victorian Soccer Council at its last meeting concurred with the recommendation of League Management that the Goodchild Soccer Club be expelled from the Association for failure to comply with League requirements on club management and other matters.

All remaining games of this club will be forfeited to its opponents.

STOTT, PIERCY RISE SHARPLY

Cubero Improves in Argus Medal

Stott, of Moreland, and Piercy, of Hakoah, earned major points last Saturday to rise sharply on the list of aggregate voting for the "Argus" Best and Fairest Medal.

By getting two votes, Joe Cubero gained a point on leader, Bob Wemyss, who received only one vote.

Although not shown in the curtailed list below, Joe Plateo made the list for the first time by taking major points in the Juventus-Slavia match.

Players with five votes or more are listed below:

Wemyss (Polonia)	20
Dobrilovic (Prahran)	17
Cubero (J.U.S.T.)	15
Stott (Moreland)	11

ABANDONMENT OF CUP MATCH

Decision and Appeal

Evidence regarding the abandoned Footscray City-St. Albans Dockerty Cup match, which stood at 1-all after 80 minutes, was heard by the Investigation and Disciplinary Committee, and the match awarded to Footscray City.

St. Albans appealed to the Council against the decision, and the case will have been re-heard after this had gone to press.

Referee Rossiter's report stated that a spectator, later identified as Mr. Allen, President of St. Albans, continually called abuse from the touchline, and on one or two occasions, crossed the line onto the edge of the pitch.

When a St. Albans player fell injured, the report continued, Mr. Rossiter waited for the ball to go out of play, and, when he turned to examine the injured player, he saw Mr. Allen about 20 yards inside the sideline picking the player up.

He told Mr. Allen that he had not been called onto the pitch, and asked for his name several times as Mr. Allen carried the player to the sideline, but was ignored. He thereupon ordered the game abandoned.

Under questioning, Mr. Rossiter stated that the game had been well played until the abandonment, and that he had had no trouble with either the players or spectators other than Mr. Allen.

The Committee then awarded the game to Footscray City.

Mr. Allen stated later that he and his Committee were stunned by the decision, and would appeal to Council on the principal ground that injustice had occurred in that a club and its players, wholly blameless, had been severely penalised for the indiscretions of a single member.

This Year's Soccer Ball

The Association's annual Ball will take place on Saturday night, August 18th, at the Royale Ballroom, Nicholson street.

This was announced at the Council meeting last Monday night.

The date is only seven weeks away . . . clubs should start discussing it now.

After Hakoah's Harry Sutherland and Bill Harburn had scored two goals for J.U.S.T., late in the second half last Sunday, thus permitting the Jugoslavs to gain a 4-4 draw, Tom Jack quipped: "That's the first time Hakoah has scored six goals out of eight and still only got a draw."

Lucky for Max Reicheneider that Moorabbin's centre-half, Erskine, managed to control his defensive kick . . . that low-dive header with which Max scored Richmond's third goal was a particularly risky bit of dangerous play.

Because we don't know his name, and because he produced a miracle, we'll call a certain Hellenic official Mandrake. It happened at bleak, shelteress Royal Park after last Saturday's Hellenic-Preston 2-all draw, in their Reserves game. "Mandrake" opened the boot of his car and, from the miniature kitchen therein, produced a piping hot cup of tea for everybody. A greatly appreciated gesture it was, too.

Candid Comment by our CAUSTIC COACH

"Only one of my players meets me half-way — but that's only because he's a rotten judge of distance."

When Walter Zavatier clapped his hand to his head after colliding with Vince Vacirca in the Juventus-Slavia clash at the Showgrounds last week, it reminded Sam Gold, the "Soccer News" photographer, of an extremely demanding centre-forward who had the good fortune to play for Blackpool and receive his scoring passes from none other than the master himself, Stanley Matthews. One day, when Stanley was unable to play, his understudy sent across a series of nicely-judged passes from which the centre-forward headed three goals, and scored another from his instep. He was seen to hold his head after each of the headers, and at half-time, still rubbing his head, he spoke to the substitute.

"Now don't get the idea I'm fussy," he said, "but when you pass the ball to me head-high, I want you to do it the way Stanley does it — with the laces facing outward."

Italy to Win Tomorrow

There is such a plenitude of Italian soccer talent available, and such a scarcity of Jewish players, that it is logical to expect Italy to win its first match in this year's Laidlaw World Cup to-morrow afternoon at Middle Park.

Italy is the current holder of the Cup.

Kick-off for this match is at 3 p.m.

Latest incident occurred last Saturday at Sunshine United's home ground during the game against Sandringham. All home-game officials are urged to take stricter preventive measures in this connection.

GAME ABANDONED IN L.V.A. CUP

First Unfinished Match in L.V.A. History

From Frank McIver, Hon. Sec., L.V.A.

For the first time since the Latrobe Valley Association was organised, a game has failed to last the full 90 minutes.

The game was the re-play of the first-round draw between Traralgon Tigers and Moe United in the Battle of Britain Cup competition. The referee declared the game abandoned at 75 minutes when Tigers began doffing their jerseys and walking off. Moe United was leading 5-2 at the time.

The case will be dealt with by the L.V.A. Disciplinary Board.

Results of last week's League games held no surprises:

Morwell d. Sale United, 3-1.

Eastern Rovers d. Yallourn "A", 2-0.

Newborough United d. Morwell Rangers, 5-0.

BRIGHTON, HAKOAH IN EQUAL THIRD PLACE

Both in Hard Games To-day

Both Brighton and Hakoah, who are in equal third place on the League ladder, have hard matches to-day, and if beaten could find themselves displaced by Polonia.

Brighton faces J.U.S.T. at Como Park, and, while the Seasiders are playing improved football, they will find the Redsox very hard to toss and as completely unpredictable as ever. Both of these teams play all out right to the final whistle, and spectators at Como Park will see a crowd-pleaser.

Hakoah was originally to have played Juventus at the Showgrounds, but decided to play the match at home at Middle Park and take advantage of the smaller, loose surface on which the Italians may not be at their best. Should Hakoah's hopes be fulfilled in this respect, Juventus could suffer a shock defeat similar to that which occurred at Slavia's Port Melbourne ground on Easter Monday.

Polonia is suffering from a peculiar complaint which might best be called "draw disease." Selected to win all but one of its last five games, the exception being its game with Juventus, the Redshirts drew with all five of their opponents, and, in a couple of the games, were exceedingly lucky to do so. Nevertheless, they are chosen to beat Box Hill at Royal Park.

With Slavia recovering from its thrashing at the hands of Juventus, and Moreland cock-a-hoop over its showing against Polonia, it would be logical to expect the Browns to win to-day. But Slavia is particularly effective on its home ground, and should win in a hard, close game.

The game at Footscray will be in the nature of a friendly match, with nothing at stake for either Prahran or Footscray City.

Last Week's Results

Box Hill d. Prahran, 1—0.

Juventus d. Slavia, 4—0.

Brighton d. Footscray City, 5—0.

Moreland drew with Polonia, 4—4.

Hakoah drew with J.U.S.T., 4—4.

HELLENIC, S. MELBOURNE FACE HARD MATCH

Other Leaders Safe Today

Hardest game to-day will be the one between old rivals Hellenic and South Melbourne. A loss at this stage of the season could decide the clubs' future, at least as far as 1957 is concerned.

South Melbourne has defeated Hellenic twice this year, in the first League round, and in the first Dockerty Cup round, the score being 4—2 on both occasions. Reports on those games indicate that the Greek side tends to become very unsettled when facing South Melbourne's type of attack, lose concentration, and go on to more or less defeat themselves.

Other teams in the upper half of the 2nd Division League tables—Yallourn, Wilhelmina, Geelong and Sunshine City—should have no difficulty in taking the points available to-day.

England's Win Tomorrow ?

With twenty leading players from which to select a side, England should win its World Cup match against Ireland at Middle Park to-morrow.

This will be the early game, which commences at 1.30 p.m.

NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT
At ST. MORITZ ICE PALAIS
LIGHTNING PREMIERSHIP

Under 15 Team Chosen

The Junior Under 15 team which is to visit Yallourn for an inter-Association game has been selected.

Selectors MacFadyean, Fox and Chambers finished their difficult task with the feeling that the boys chosen will be welded into a good combination, and offer sincere thanks to the many boys who attended the trials unsuccessfully.

Here is the team:—

FINLAY (St. Kilda).
GALLOWAY (Dandenong).
LIGHTFOOT (St. Kilda).
FARRELL (Fairfield).
SCOTT (Brighton).
JORDON (St. Kilda).
BEDFORD (Box Hill).
KEYS (Box Hill).
SCIVLUNA (Pascoe Vale).
STEVENSON (St. Kilda).
ABERNETHY (Essendon).
PLECHER (Polonia).

✦ ✦

Complications have arisen in connection with the Junior Carnival which was to have been held in Brisbane this year.

Latest advice is to the effect that Western Australia will participate, and that the carnival will go on in July, 1957.

✦ ✦

An interesting fact was pointed out during last Monday's Council meeting by Mr. Jock Parker, Chairman of the Junior Association.

Of the Queensland team which met and beat New South Wales recently, eight of the players had participated in one or both of the last two Junior carnivals.

First Hakoah Ball for Years

Hakoah's Social Committee is being flooded with reservation enquiries for the first ball the club has sponsored for some years.

It will be held at Earl's Court, St. Kilda, on Saturday night, July 14th.

Mr. Nat Baytch is taking enquiries, by phone at FL1955, and by mail at 51 Bell street, Coburg.

DRAWN GAMES HOLDING LEADER

Another drawn game with Dandenong last week has kept Preston from getting a break on the rest of the leading teams. If Sunshine United gains a draw to-day, only goal percentage will keep Preston in front of Coburg, which is home and hosed against Sandringham City.

With the leading four teams, Preston, Coburg, Richmond and Dandenong only separated by 4 points, and with 10 games yet to be played, 3rd Division premiership is still very open.

Richmond v. Brunswick, and Frankston v. Dandenong should prove to be to-day's closest tussles.

Last Week's Results

Richmond d. Moorabbin, 7—1.
Coburg d. Williamstown, 4—0.
Sunshine United d. Sandringham, 3—2.
Dandenong drew with Preston, 2—2.
